Who is it for?

This one-week course is for qualified, experienced lawyers, who have a good level of English. Typically, course participants need to develop their speaking and writing skills to communicate complicated legal ideas to partners, clients and colleagues in a variety of formal and less formal situations including meetings, negotiations, and networking events.

Course content

Legal English 30+ develops your communication skills using realistic legal situations. Key skills covered include:

- ▶ Expanding legal vocabulary
- ▶ Effective communication skills for meetings, discussions and negotiations
- ▶ Presentation skills
- ▶ Written communication - emails and formal letters
- ▶ Hosting visits, socialising, meeting and greeting
- ▶ Writing example contracts
- ▶ Giving legal advice, for example describing the process of litigation to a foreign client

There are opportunities to learn about English and EC law and the English legal system but it is not a course in law.

Benefits

At the end of the course, you can expect to be able to:

- ▶ Communicate more fluently and accurately
- ▶ Use specialised legal terminology more effectively
- ▶ Write more effective legal texts
- ▶ Participate more confidently in meetings and negotiations
- ▶ Socialise and network with greater confidence
- ▶ Work more successfully in a cross-cultural environment
